

The community.

Jacaranda Tree & Co., a Toronto independent retailer now in its 32nd year of operation, is a browser's delight. The store - a mainstay in its trendy midtown Toronto neighbourhood - sells a fabulous selection of gifts, table linens, antiques, rugs, home decor, furniture, chandeliers, toiletries, nighties, stationery, jewelry, baby items and candles, and one of a kind items. Giving back to the community is a defining trademark. For the past 14 years the store has held a fundraising day with partial proceeds going to a local hospital. Area schools, churches, senior residences and other local causes continue to benefit from the store's civic largesse.
