

The community.

Located in the quaint fishing village of Steveston (in Richmond, BC), Canadian-owned and operated Jet-Lag Travel Fashion Boutique is a full-service women's wear store with a distinctly West Coast vibe. In fact, a visit to Jet-Lag is almost like a day at the spa. As part of its holistic, good-for-you philosophy, Jet-Lag is proactively involved in doing good deeds for the community. The range of activities is broad and includes programs to help women, their families and the wellness causes that matter most to them. The store hosts networking evenings, social gatherings, fundraising clothes swaps and themed events, such as cruise information presentations and packing demonstrations.
